Peony Price List

Lee R. Bonnewitz
Van Wert, Ohio

Due to the many inquiries I have recently received asking how late in the season Peonies can successfully be planted, and owing to the fact that I am also receiving orders for varieties on which I am "Sold Out," and for which I have to return the remittance, I am issuing the last price list for this season, to give my experience with late planting, and to show what varieties I can still furnish from my garden.

In order to take care of my customers successfully I always give their orders preference, and so during the months of September and October I have very little time in which to do my own planting, and for this reason most of the planting in my own garden for the past two years has been done in November, and on many varieties planted at this time I have found bloom the following spring. My importations of new varieties from France are often delayed and do not arrive until December or January, and I always take advantage of any thawing period to plant these imported roots, and I have had good results with roots planted as late as March and April. I am today placing my second order with A. Dessert, Chenonceaux, France, for varieties on which I had a heavy demand this season. During the war some shipments did not arrive until May, but the roots planted then did not give satisfactory growth. In order to get my own planting done it will be necessary for me to take advantage of all the open weather during the winter, and it is probable that I will do some planting every month, including March. However, it is much more pleasant to plant during the fall months, and I do not advise anyone to put off planting a bit longer than necessary, although roots planted in November and December will have the advantage of a year's growth over roots planted next September.

The roots furnished will be the same as I have always furnished, "Bonnewitz Strong One-Eye Divisions." Many of my customers have sent in repeat orders after receiving their first shipment in September, proving that "Bonnewitz Strong One-Eye Peony Divisions" are being appreciated.

It is necessary for me to withdraw my Amateur Collection offer, M. Martin Cahuzac, M. Jules Elie, Avalanche, Marie Crousse and Mikado, for $5.00; due to a heavy sale on several varieties I cannot accept orders for World's Best Peonies, Collection "B", Georgiana Shaylor, E. B. Browning, Le Cygne and Philippe Rivoire for $28.00.

I can accept orders for the following collections:

Collection "A", World's Best Peonies, a Bonnewitz Strong One-Eye Division of Karl Rosenfield, Therese, Walter Faxon and Jubilee for $10.00. Transportation charges to be paid by purchaser.

Beginner's Collection No. 1, four Bonnewitz Strong One-Eye Peony Divisions of named varieties for $1.50, Postage Paid.

Beginner's Collection No. 2, eight Bonnewitz Strong One-Eye Peony Divisions of named varieties for $3.00, Postage Paid.

I will also accept orders for a limited number of my introductory offer of two Bonnewitz Strong One-Eye Peony Divisions for $1.00, Postage Paid.

TERMS

I am growing my Peonies for the retail customer, especially for the Peony enthusiast who is building up a private collection, and consequently I have no wholesale price or trade discount to offer. The prices quoted are the same to everyone. My terms are cash with the order and money will be returned for any variety which I cannot furnish. I will not make any substitutions, and will send only the roots you order, as nothing displeases me more than to have a substitute sent me on an order I place.

I believe that every variety I offer is absolutely true to name, but should any prove to be untrue, I will gladly refund the money paid for it.

I like to send roots by express as in that case the customer pays exactly what the transportation costs. If, however, any customer ordering a few roots wishes them sent by parcel post, he may send fifteen cents additional for each root or division, and I will not only pay the postage but will also insure the safe delivery of the package. Express is usually cheaper when five or more roots are ordered.

Weather permitting, I will ship all orders within one day after receipt in my office.
